HUMANE SOCIETY MAKES A CAT RAID

Two Hundred Night Prowlers Hugged
In New York.

New York, July 23.—Yowling, spitting, scratching and biting, 200 cats were cornered, one by one, last night in the old Washington market and dumped into baskets to be disposed of later by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Agents of the society, policemen, watchmen, butchers, fish mongers, greengrocers and all the little world of the market joined in a midnight hunt that for activity and noise outdid anything ever chronicled from Africa.

For years the cats at first were encouraged to keep down the rats, and have run wild and increased in numbers and subcellular until they became an intolerable pest. The market is now in process of renovation.

REPRESENTATIVE AMERICANS

S.S. Mongolia Will Bring
Many On Next
Thursday

The Pacific Mail steamer Mongolia will arrive at Honolulu three days behind her regular advertised schedule but the vessel is to bring a party of representative Americans included among her passengers destined to the Far East.

The Mongolia is leaving San Francisco on Friday, according to late advice received through the agency of H. Mackfield & Co. This will bring the fine Pacific Mail liner into Honolulu on Thursday morning of the following week.

This is the vessel that is scheduled to transport a party of business and professional men and also a sprinkling of tourists for a round trip to Japan and China. The party will number at least one hundred if the announcement now on file at the office of the Promotion Committee can be counted upon as authentic.

Special attention will be given towards extending a fitting welcome to the members of the party during their brief stay at Honolulu.

There is a drive to the Fall for those who desire to visit the famous scenic spot. The museum and the aquarium will come in for an inspection. The party will be served a lunch at Waikiki and it is possible that the vessel will be dispatched for Japan along about 5 o'clock on the afternoon of August 18th.

The excursion party is due to return to Los Angeles by the middle of October, having visited practically all points of interest throughout Japan and China.

The delay in the departure of the Mongolia will, it is said, not inconvenience the party of tourists in the least. This vessel met with an accident while near Yokohama and went ashore causing an unavoidable detention there of six days. This caused an alteration of the regular schedule.

Agitation has been started toward making Yokohama a free port, similar to Hongkong, according to advice brought to Victoria, B. C., by the steamer Sumner.

Wind checks were given out at the St. Louis aviation meet. Happy thought. Why could they not be utilized also for political speeches and prize fights?—Houston Chronicle.

SHARK-FIN STORY

NOT BELIEVED

Schooner Concord May Make Another
Trip to Guano Island—Revenue
Dept. Considered Too Slow to Catch Japanese Schooner.

The Japanese who were left at Laysan Island less than two weeks ago will have ample time to make a killing of birds, prepare the skins and package for shipment, and sail away before the United States revenue cutter Thetis or any other vessel could reach the lonely mid-Pacific island and apprehend them or overhaul their craft.

A local Japanese official has given out as his belief that the presence of one or more Japanese schooners in the vicinity of Laysan should produce nothing of a serious nature. It is claimed that the vessels sent out from Japan each season for a cruise through the Pacific are mainly in search of shark fins. At this time of the year it is contended that they usually call at some of the smaller islands with the hope of securing a limited supply of water.

This story might go very well were it not for the fact that the schooner met with by the officers of the Concord carried about half a dozen officers and twenty-five men. It would seem rather unusual for such a large company to be found aboard a small schooner whose only mission for roaming the seas was the pursuit of the man-eating shark and securing his marketable fins and bones.

"When a vessel smaller than the little Concord is found near an outlying bird island, carrying a crew of between twenty-five and thirty men, it comes near being a safe bet that the vessel has been sent on a poaching expedition," stated an oldtime sea skipper this morning.

SUDDEN DEATH OF RUSSIAN

Suspicious Case Takes
Sheriff And Chief
To Waiialua

Word has been received from Waiialua to the effect that one of the Russian laborers employed on the plantation had died under very suspicious circumstances. It appears that the man had had some dealings with the police department some months ago, and that he was in consequence in bad odor with some of the agitators, who have been from time to time conspicuous in Russian circles.

As soon as word was received by the Sheriff, he and Chief of Detectives McDuffie started off for Waiialua, and the two will investigate the whole circumstances surrounding the death of the Russian.

The man was in perfect health up till Saturday and then a stranger visited him at the Russian camp on the plantation. Soon after the stranger left for Honolulu and the laborer was taken ill. He died a few hours afterwards, and the circumstances were such that Manager Goodale telephoned in for an investigator and suggested that an investigation should be made into the case.

Deputy Sheriff Cox, of Waiialua, is looking into the matter also, and he will see to it that Sheriff Jarrett and Chief McDuffie are put in possession of all the facts.

Discovers First Husband Alive

Marriage

Married and didn't know it, might have been the title to the domestic difficulty in which Annie Mendola recently found herself and which she told Judge Tobin this morning when applying for annulment of her second marriage.

It was several years ago that the Hawaiian girl was married to a Japanese husband. They separated for some cause and she heard in what she thought an authentic manner of his death on Maui.

As it had been more than six years since she had seen this son of Nippon husband, Annie considered it quite likely that he was dead, especially as she had heard nothing from him in all this time.

As his bride, nothing being said by her of the former marriage.

Within the past few weeks a friend of her's saw the supposed Japanese corpse walking around Honolulu streets and had converse with him. As soon as possible this friend found Annie and informed her of the predicament she was in.

Both husband number two and his wife agreed that annulment was the only way out of the difficulty and petition for this relief were filed with the court at once, and granted on hearing today.

Annie will, it is understood, apply for a divorce from her Japanese husband and then for the second time Mendola will lead her to the altar knowing full well that no shadowy husband of the past can again come into his life.

New Tariff Bringing Millions

TROOPS MUST FIGHT FIRES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 8.—President Taft, as commander-in-chief of the army, has issued orders that troops may be used at any and all times to fight forest fires that threaten destruction.

GREEN GOODS MEN WANTED

Two hundred dollars reward will be paid by the United States Department of Justice for delivery into the hands of a United States officer of two green goods men who failed to appear in Philadelphia on June 25 and in Philadelphia June 14 last, and thereby forfeited bail amounting to $25,000.

These two men have operated all over the United States and are known under many aliases.

E. A. Starkloff is fifty-three years of age, and the other, George W. Post, is forty-five, both being under indictment at present.

They are charged with using the United States mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud, and were both indicted in New York on May 25 and in Philadelphia June 14 last. Also indicted by the Federal grand jury at Chicago on May 26.

The two swindlers were to appear in Philadelphia on June 15 for hearing, and as they failed to appear at that time, their bail, amounting to $25,000, was forfeited.

They were last seen at Wynne, Wood, Penn., on June 3, each carrying a large satchel.

OCEAN SKYSCRAPERS NEARING COMPLETION

Belfast, July 23.—Excellent progress is being made at Messrs. Harland & Wolff's shipyard with the construction of the two great liners, the Olympic and Titanic, for the White Star Company. No fewer than 4000 men are engaged on the work.

The Olympic is much further advanced than her sister ship. The Harbor Commissioners are engaged in deepening the river near the Olympic's launching slip, and the builders hope to carry out their original intention to launch her on October 20th next. Until then it will not be possible to fix definitely the date for the launching of the Titanic. Standing at the keel of the Olympic and gazing 150 feet upward to the fifth deck, which is completed, one gets a wonderful idea of the vastness of the vessel; yet, gigantic as it is, it has the graceful curves of a millionaire's yacht. The sixth and seventh decks are yet to be added. When finished they will increase the depth of the ship by sixteen or eighteen feet or about 168 feet in all, which is higher than some of the land "skyscrapers."

The Porto Rican Bar Association held memorial services at San Juan for the late Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court.
